

WINTER SPECIAL CAMP REPORT OF N.S.S. UNIT -II

GUNUPUR COLLEGE, GUNUPUR

(DATED-19.01.2017 TO 25.01.2017)

Around 08:00am all the volunteers of N.S.S. unit-II (23 volunteers), that is, the girls unit, reported at the camp site. Registration of all the volunteers was done at the first, after the registration, the volunteers were divided into three groups & assigned with different works:-

Group-1 (Logistic group)

Group-2 (Reporting & news paper making)

Group-3 (Discipline, sanitation & entertainment group)

DAY-1(29.01.2017)

This camp was mainly focusing on the "Swacha Bharat Avhiyan" which is a campaign by the government of India to keep the environment & our surrounding clean. Soon after the registration & division into groups of the volunteers, the inauguration meeting was conducted. The meeting started at around 11:30am, which was inaugurated by our principal Shri Mohan Chandra Sahu. The chief speaker, Shri Ramchandra panda explained the true meaning of society, leadership & social service. He told how each & every human being is related to the society & even a small contribution can bring a great change in the society. Prof. Mohan Chandra Sahu wished all the volunteers for a successful camp & the P.O. gave a brief report all the activities that were to be carried out in the camp. After the meeting all the guests joined for lunch along with the volunteers.

In the second half, the volunteers carried out a cleaning programme at the college camp site. After the completion of cleaning programme, designing of a script for a street play in the presence of an ex-volunteer Mr. Lohit Lima was prepared. Some of the volunteers practised for the street play which was hugely appreciated by all the guests present. The script for the street play was based on the cleanliness of the society & sanitation.

At the end of the day, after taking rest, the volunteers again gathered around 08:30pm for dinner & were dispersed for the day.

DAY-2(20.01.2017)

After spending a peaceful cold winter night, the N.S.S. volunteers after their regular routine work in the morning, performed yoga. At around 08:00am all the volunteers reported at the camp site. The volunteers then left for sub divisional hospital. After reaching SDH, the volunteers carried out the Swachh Bharat aviyaan there & then moved to the police station & carried out the same thing there. It was not that only the volunteers were doing all the work, the volunteers also motivated the staffs of SDH & police station to join hands with the volunteers & clean the surroundings. We also cannot forget all the help & equipments that had been provided by the NAC gunupur for carried out this activity.

Even the IIC of gunupur police station, Mr.Nirmal Chandra Panigrahy praised all the volunteers for doing such a selfless social work. He appreciated every bit of it. The NAC executive officer Sri Charan Behera was also present & witnessed every activity. The volunteers then returned to the camp site at 01:00pm after completion the cleaning programme.

After the lunch break, the second session was started. Two of the resourced person Dr.Jayasri jethy & Dr. Sujata samanatharay, gave an incredible representation on digitalisation, cashless society & the role of youth in it. This was an interactive session. All the volunteers actively participated in it. In fact one of the volunteer shared with us a way to complete the cash transaction via mobile without the usage of internet. After this our P.O. gave us a topic to think upon, which was "The difference between Aim & Dream". Everybody discussed & shared their views on the topic .We again cleaned the remaining area of the camp site.

Within this our second day activities were over & we were served with delicious dinner at 08:30pm.

DAY-3 (21.01.2017)

As regular all the volunteers reported at the camp site sharp 08:00am. This was the day when we extended our activities to further adopted villages. The volunteers visited Marathiguda, one of the adopted villages, & carried out the cleaning programme there which comes under the swachh bharat aviyaan. The volunteers also went spreading awareness to people about how much cleanliness is important for all living beings & how they can do it. They even encouraged the villagers to raise their voice if they see someone exploiting the environment & to plant trees. In addition to this the volunteers also cleaned the area surrounding the Shiva temple & ganesh temple. After the completion of this the volunteers went back to the camp site & had their lunch.

In the second half, a meeting was conducted in which Dr.Jawahar Choudhury one of the resource person was invited as the chief speaker. This meeting was also attended by various lecturers of our college which includes our college principal too. This shows that the whole college was also actively participating in the N.S.S. camp Dr.Jawahar choudhury delivered a beautiful speech on the role of youth in the formation of the society. He point by point explained the meaning of society, youth, social service & role of youth in social services. He included great examples of gandhiji, hittler, Plato etc from the world history. After the meeting was over, the selected volunteers rehearsed for the street play & the others observed & pointed out the mistakes & helped them to make it look more realistic. By 5.30 pm our PET teacher Sri D.P.padhy taught us some yoga sans to fresher us & bring after a long day.

All the volunteers along with the programme officers had their dinner at around 08:30pm & went to bed.

DAY-4(22.01.2017)

Day 4 started with the volunteers getting fresh & having their breakfast, reported at the camp site at 08:00am. This was a long working day. Some of the volunteers again visited Marathiguda village & started the swachh bharat aviyaan in the uncovered areas & some of the other volunteers went from door to door simultaneously interacting with each family & carried out a survey on how many are bank account holders & how many are not. They also questioned the people about their dependency on cash & cashless transactions. The volunteers patiently told them about pradhan mantri jan-dhan yojana (PMJDY) by which the non bank account holders can open up their bank accounts in any branch with zero balance. From the data collected from the survey, it came into light that almost 80%-85% of the population was dependent on cash to cash transactions.

At the same time, when these volunteers were busy carrying out the survey. Some of the other volunteers enthusiastically stepped forward to devote their blood. The blood donation camp was arranged at the SDH & 04 units of blood were successfully donated.

After a tiring first half, the volunteers were served with delicious food. After lunch a small cultural programme was conducted to refresh volunteer's minds. Many volunteers came forward & show cased their hidden talent.

In the second half, Dr. Pradeep Kumar panda the gynaecologist of S.D.H was invited our chief speaker for the evening session. He told us the meaning of life & death & also enlightened us with the three major things in life;

- Believe
- Hard work
- Tolerance

He beautifully explained how they influence our life & make it peaceful.

With this, it was a wrap for our 4th day & at around 08:30pm the volunteers had their dinner.

DAY-5(23.01.2017)

All the volunteers gathered at the camp site around 08:30am since it was Netaji jayanti. All the volunteers gathered near the statue of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose along with many other college students & lecturers. This meeting started at around 09:00am. Prayer services, commemorative ceremony & tributes were performed by our principal & other staff members in the honour of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose. On principal, Shri Mohan Chandra Sahu delivered a beautiful on Netaji's life & his teaching. Then some of the volunteers briefly cleared out the concept of the importance of this particular day. After the meeting was over, the volunteers again rehearsed for the street play that was to be performed.

After the lunch break by 03:00pm, the volunteers started for a rally from the camp site to Marathiguda village on spreading awareness about quitting alcohol, smoking, sanitation, protecting girl child, literacy etc.

At around 04:00pm, we stopped at an open area which was suitable for the street play & the volunteers went from door to door inviting the villagers to watch the street play. It was huge success for the first time performance. All the villagers highly appreciated & applauded for the volunteers. Then, the volunteers again headed back to the camp site.

By 07:30pm all the activities of 5th day of this N.S.S. camp was over & at 08:30pm all had their dinner & were dispersed to go to bed.

As per instructions all the volunteers reported directly sub collector office at 08:00am. The volunteers carried out the cleaning programme there in the presence of Mr. Basant Kumar Sahoo sub collector & many other staff members who witnessed everything. Sri Karunakar Raika, P.A. ITDA was also present. The street play was also performed in front of them. The sub collector highly praised all the volunteers & gave a positive feedback. From there, to continue our cleaning programme, we headed to tahasil office & continued to clean the area. We also encouraged the staff members to work with us, they also helped in cleaning the surroundings. In this way, their involvement encouraged other people to join.

Around 12:30pm, after completion of the above activities, we headed down to Marathiguda village to carry out a rally on social awareness. We again performed the street play there for the remaining villagers. Our play definitely reached out to many people, since it was evident from the each of their food.

The volunteers returned to the camp site around 01:30pm & were served with great food. In the second half the volunteers headed again to Marathiguda to organise a free health check up camp with the help of some doctors of Jagannathpur CHC.

Many villagers were checked up by the doctors for any health related problems & free medicines were also supplied to 17 members of the village. After wrapping up everything there we headed back to the college & collected dry woods from nearby to arrange for a bonfire night in the evening hours.

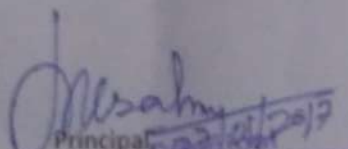

After having dinner, we all gathered around the bonfire & had a jolly good time which included joking around, sharing fond memories, dancing, singing etc. Our programme officer also took part in it happily. Then we were dispersed for the day.

Today was the last day of this N.S.S. special winter camp. After an amazing bonfire night all the volunteers were all fresh in the morning & reported at the camp site around 08:00am. From there, we headed to the sub collector's office for a rally that was being organised on the occasion of voter's day. Many other students from different school & colleges also took part in the rally. We started from the sub collector's office to biju pattanaik Man daps. We attended a meeting there, where many known personalities addressed all the volunteers & students encouraging us to cast our votes & how important it is to cast votes. After the meeting the volunteers were asked to head back again to the camp site. All the volunteers reached the camp site around 12:0 noon & started for a rally again to the nearby adopted villages. After coming back from the rally volunteers took rest & were served with lunch.

Around 03:00pm, the volunteers prepared for the closing ceremony. The function was presided by prof. Mohan Chandra Sahu, principal of Gunupur College, Gunupur. & Mr. G Rath who joined us as our chief guest. The chief guest addressed all the volunteers & explained them the importance of forests, nature & our environment. He encouraged every single person to plant something from time to time. He also praised for all the efforts that the volunteers had put to make this camp successful. Then the volunteers were awarded with N.S.S certificate by our chief guest for their participation.

At around 05:30pm our cultural programme was started. Many incredibly talented volunteers took part in it. It was a whole package; it included singing, dance, group dance item, monoaction & mime acts. Then at last, our programme officers conveyed their vote of thanks to everyone, guests & the volunteers.
